

"If you want to be prepared for the future, you have to act now."

When taking a look at the future, he maintains perspective: Global Topspeaker Michael Carl is a successful trend researcher and strategy expert and in this context, also addresses the future of money and banks. In his trendsetting presentations, he illustrates how we will live and work, act and produce in the future, but never forgets to consider the human factor as well. In a highly entertaining manner and keeping everyday reality in mind, he points out what technical changes lie ahead of us and what impact they will have on our society and the world of business.
