PARTICIPANT COMMENTS

„This letter is to inform you that I've had many opportunities to hear Reggie Jones speak in session as well as enjoy personal mentoring sessions and he is very articulate and has certainly motivated me! Reggie expands in great detail the information he is addressing and he can customize material for any audience. He also relates very well as a 'people person' by his understanding listeners' positions and goals in life. I know he would be an asset to your panel because great motivation speakers these days are getting hard to find.“
