

"The future will arrive – change yourself or you will be changed"

Keynote speaker Norman Graeter always puts the focus on the human being. His speeches are bursting with passion, enthusiasm and motivation. He always concentrates on the person itself within the employee, customer and business partner - and recognizes therein long-lasting success in times of change and digitalization. His audience will experience exciting inspiration that reaches everyone and that can cause some small and even bigger change. Not for nothing is spell binder Norman Graeter double European champion in public speaking - the highest award for speakers in German language.
