Biography

Michael Carl, born in 1968, works as consultant with companies, teams and for individual persons. His fields of expertise include strategy, corporate change and organisational development. After studies in protestant theology at the universities of Hamburg, Edinburgh and Frankfurt am Main, he was trained as radio journalist and worked with different broadcasting corporations as reporter, editor and presenter. MDR Sputnik, MDR Jump, and radioeins, a Potsdam-based channel of rbb, are on his professional record.

Biography

Following four years as personal assistant to the Radio Director of rbb switched to the newly established inhouse team for corporate development in 2008 and was in charge of rbb 's strategy office. It was part of his responsibility to coordinate and govern the numerous processes of strategic management at rbb. Michael Carl is one of the co-founders of the media expert group at the German Society for Project Management.
